

Nosey Neighbours join Estate Agents in Uncovering House Price Secrets

Fubra launch a new UK Website to provide public with FREE house price and house sale information.

London, UK (PRESS RELEASE) Jan 14, 2005 – OurProperty.co.uk is a free information resource that provides the public with the sale price of any property bought and sold in England and Wales since 2000.

By being the most efficient and user friendly free service it has found itself at the forefront of the current craze for finding out the price that celebrities, friends and neighbours actually bought or sold their houses for, rather than the often optimistic asking price.

OurProperty has a policy of bringing you information that is often hard to get hold of, or that you have to pay for elsewhere, for FREE. This unique policy has meant that the site now has over 250,000 registered users, who are not only enjoying the fun side of the site but are finding it extremely useful in terms of buying or selling their property.

How much do houses in your street actually sell for? How much are houses REALLY worth in the area where you're looking to buy? If you are renting a property you can find out how much your landlord actually paid for it, and therefore how much of his/her mortgage are you paying? How much is the house you grew up in now worth?

OurProperty.co.uk founder Brendan McLoughlin said today, "The response to our free service has been phenomenal. We have thousands of people signing up everyday, with many telling us it has played a key part in the buying or selling of their homes".

OurProperty's house price information is actually the first in a raft of useful neighbourhood information that the site will be adding for its members to access for free.

Brendan went on to say "You should not have to pay for, or search too hard for Government held statistics. We will be adding other useful and free information relevant to house buying and selling over the next few months. These will all be personalised to our members requirements"

For further information, free search offers for readers, viewers or listeners etc, the cost of celebrities houses, and interview requests please contact Brendan on 01252 330194.
