

January Sales Available

We are pleased to announce that we have made our first Land Registry data update since we went live last month.

The latest update from the Land Registry is now available on the site, which includes approximately 25,000 sales in January (more to come with the next update), and an extra 75,000 records for 2004.